

NEW HAMPSHIRE SCHOOL BOARDS ASSOCIATION

2007 NHSBA School Board of Excellence Award

Has your school board accomplished or implemented innovative best practices this year? Are those best practices “transportable” to other school boards in New Hampshire? If so, you may be eligible to receive the 2007 NHSBA School Board of Excellence Award. Here’s more information about this prestigious award, and how your board can be considered:

The NHSBA School Board of Excellence Award acknowledges the leadership, teamwork and effectiveness of school boards, and provides an opportunity for the chosen board to share its expertise with others throughout the State. School boards can be nominated for the award by their local members, administrators, or constituents.

Here’s how you can apply for the 2007 NHSBA School Board of Excellence Award:

- 1. Complete the Nomination Form.
- 2. Fill in the Best Practices Narrative, describing the work of your local school board.
- 3. Return the enclosed forms by March 16, 2007 to:

New Hampshire School Boards Association
Attn: Dr. Theodore Comstock, Executive Director
